

Bringing your personal belongings to the United Kingdom from outside the European Community

This form is for you to declare your belongings to Customs and to claim any duty and tax free reliefs that may apply when you return to or transfer your normal home to the EC, or when you are a student coming to study in the EC. The reliefs are explained in Customs Notice 3 - 'Bringing your belongings and private motor vehicle into the United Kingdom from outside the European Community'. If you are a temporary visitor, see section 4 of Notice 3.

If you want a copy of this notice or more information, ask our National Advice Service (Tel: 0845 010 9000 or +44 208 929 0152 for international callers).

Please note that you will also need to complete the following forms if you are bringing in:

- private motor vehicles: Form C 104A (if imported on transfer of residence) or C 179B (if previously exported from the EC);
- pets: Form C 5 (if permanently imported); or
- furnishings for a secondary home in the EC: Form C 33.

Meaning of words in italics

Relief is freedom from paying duty and tax when you meet the relevant conditions explained in Customs Notice 3.

Your normal home is where you usually live - that means where you spend 185 days or more in a period of 12 months because of your work and personal connections. But if you have no work connections or your work and personal connections are in different countries, then you usually live where your personal connections are. (However if you are a UK citizen and you are working outside the EC, your normal home can be where you are working so long as you have lived there for 185 days or more in a period of 12 months). As an example, if you are a UK citizen returning with your family after working in the USA for 5 years, your normal home is the USA.

The UK is England, Scotland, Wales, Northern Ireland (but not the Channel Islands).

The EC is the European Community: Austria, Belgium, Cyprus*, the Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, the Irish Republic, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, the Netherlands, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, the UK. Although they have close links with the EC, the following are regarded as outside the EC for tax purposes: the Åland Islands, Andorra, the Canary Islands, the Channel Islands, French Guiana, Guadeloupe, Martinique, Mount Athos, Reunion, San Marino and Turkey.

*Any area of Cyprus not under the control of the Government of the Republic of Cyprus is treated as outside the EC.

Your belongings are the goods kept by you or your immediate family for household or personal use. Private motor vehicles are not covered by this form.

A diplomat includes anyone who works in UK or foreign Embassies, Consuls or High Commissions, or in association with these. Also Foreign and Commonwealth Office staff, or staff working in their support.

A temporary visitor is a person who usually lives outside the EC who has no intention of moving their normal home to the EC.

Part A You must list the following goods below, even if they are already specified on a packing list:

What to do next

When you have completed this form, send it with any continuation sheet(s), packing list, relevant invoices and the keys for any locked packages to the agent, airline or shipping company that is clearing your belongings through UK Customs. Faxed copies will be acceptable for Customs purposes if it is difficult to get the originals to your agent.

Data Protection Act 1998

HM Customs and Excise collects information in order to administer the taxes for which it is responsible (such as VAT, insurance premium tax, excise duties, air passenger duty, landfill tax, climate change levy), and for detecting and preventing crime.

Where the law permits we may also get information about you from third parties, or give information to them, for example in order to check its accuracy, prevent or detect crime or protect public funds in other ways. These third parties may include the police, other government departments and agencies.

U.K CUSTOMS REGULATIONS

Used household and personal effects are allowed into the U.K free of duty and V.A.T, if they been in the owners possession and used abroad for at least 6 months and providing they are for the sole use of the owner in the U.K. The six-month rule does not apply when the owner is moving with used effects to the U.K from another EC country. When moving from outside the EC the owner must not have lived within the EC in the previous 12 months. The owner must retain the effects for at least 12 months after importation.

The shipment must arrive either within 6 months before, or within 12 months after the owners arrival in the U.K.

All new items, items under 6 months old, wines, spirits, tobacco, perfumes and gifts are subject to duty and vat. There is NO duty free entitlement on unaccompanied effects.

If possible keep copies of receipts/ invoices for any new/ dutiable items as these may be required by Customs and Excise.

HOW TO COMPLETE YOUR C3 CUSTOMS FORM

Important Notes:

PLEASE do not rush through the form as incorrectly completed C3's can delay clearance and delivery of your effects by up to two weeks and possible storage charges.

PLEASE complete and sign each form.

Each form must be an original, as Customs will not accept photocopies or facsimiles.

Should you have more than one shipment (i.e. sea and airfreight), you must complete a C3 for each shipment.

Page 1: PLEASE just complete the "personal details" section. We will complete the "request to clear".

Page 2: PLEASE answer these questions carefully, after referring to the detailed instructions given. It is vital that if you are instructed to go directly from one response to another (thereby passing over certain intervening questions) that you do so. Otherwise customs will probably reject the form and a new C3 will need to be completed.

Page 3: If your answer to any question on page 3 is none, YOU MUST WRITE "NONE" clearly in each space provided. Use of N/A or NIL or drawing a line, e.t.c will result in Customs rejecting the form and delay clearance.

All alcohol, tobacco, perfume and aftershave is dutiable if included in your shipment. These items must be declared on your C3 and clearly listed on the inventory. In many instances, they will result in your shipment being physically inspected by Customs. Failure to provide detailed information on these items also increases the chances of inspection

Page 4: items less than six months old must be declared on this page. In most cases, duties and taxes will then be assessed on any such item. If you have no items less than six months old you must write "NONE".

Then please sign and date the form and list your home address. (If you do not yet have a permanent residence, please list your hotel or temporary accommodation address.)
